Comparison of discount share brokers in India-2021. Discount Brokers provide less number of services but at a much cheaper price. They offer no-frill services and specialized into few investment options. Discount brokers are good for 'do-it-yourself' kind of investors. While the services offered by them varies from broker to broker, many of the discount stock brokers do not provide services like stock research, investment in IPO's, mutual funds, FD's, bonds and NCD's.

A discount broker is a brokerage company that executes your buy and sell orders at a low trading fee. Discount brokers can afford to charge lower fees because, unlike full-service brokers, they usually don't provide extra services such as research, personal investment advice, tax planning or robo-advisory. The difference between full-service brokers and discount brokers has blurred somewhat in recent years. Discount brokers started to offer extra services as well, like research; while full .
